Domaine Feuillat-Juillot

Montagny

Montagny 1er Cru
Les Coères

Grower

Françoise Feuillat-Juillot, daughter of the Mercurey producer Michel Juillot, grew up among the vines and barrels of her family domaine before taking a degree in oenology at Dijon University. Her daughter Camille has joined her as a full partner. The domaine has 14 hectares of mainly old vines spread across 13 premiers crus in the amphitheatre of Montagny. The soils are worked mechanically, every grape is picked by hand and the whole domaine has been farmed organically since 2021.

Vineyards

Les Coères is considered the finest terroir of the appellation. The domaine's 4 hectares of old vines lie across the communes of Montagny, Jully and Saint-Vallerin, mainly facing east on a gentle shelf that gives rich, concentrated wines, with a north-facing wing that adds tension. Marl and limestone soils, at around 300 metres.

Vinification

Hand harvested. Alcoholic and malolactic fermentation in oak, in demi-muids and traditional Burgundy barrels from the Allier and Vosges forests, with regular bâtonnage. The wine stays on its fine lees for 8 to 10 months and is lightly filtered before bottling.

Style

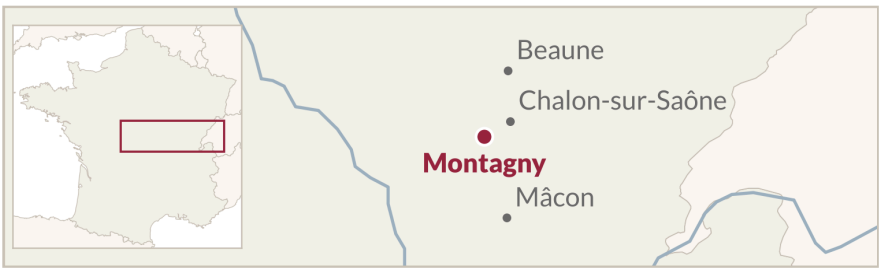

The domaine's finest wine: rich and generous, yet straight and well defined on the palate, with a long, generous finish. Excellent with scallops, lobster and prawns.
